

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MRS. ROSE HUNTER

—[o]—

Funeral services for Mrs. Roselia Lunt Hunter, who died of pneumonia and complications last Friday in the county hospital, were held in the Tabernacle Tuesday afternoon at 2 p. m. under the direction of the First Ward, Bp. F. B. Wood presiding.

The choir opened the services by singing "Through Deepening Trails."

Lehi W. Jones was the first speaker, and said that he felt it a privilege to be asked to speak on this occasion. He said that Sister Rose Lunt as the family called her, represented one of the pioneer families of this valley, and that he felt she had taken her part in this life in the home, community and church. In as much as Sister Hunter had been sick a good deal he felt that her passing was a blessing to her. He expressed himself as glad to see so many people at her funeral to pay her respects.

Sister E. C. Watson spoke sentiments of love and respect pertaining to the life and character of the deceased, and said Sister Hunter had been a very tender and devoted mother, that she always tried to develop any talents in her children, so that they might help to make life cheerful and happy for others.

Following Mrs. Watson, was a vocal solo by E. M. Corry, "I Know That My Redeemer Lives"

Samuel F. Leigh said that it was a pleasure to speak at the funeral of a friend, of one who had lived a good life. He said many good things had been said of the life of Sister Hunter and that they were all true. He then read a tribute to the life of the deceased. He mentioned the lives of Bro. Henry Lunt and Joseph F. Hunter, their faith and lives as pioneers.

A tribute to Sister Hunter by a neighbor was then read by Bp. F. B. Wood. Bp. Wood wished the good things of Sister Hunter's life to be an inspiration in the lives of her children in doing what is right.

Annette Bettensen, Ann Gardner, Lehi M. Jones and Reed Jones sang "Lead Me Gently Home," accompanied by Ivy Webster on the piano.

Benediction was pronounced by T. J. Jones.

The casket and bier were completely covered with floral tributes from friends and relatives, and a large crowd of sympathizing friends were in attendance.

Surviving Mrs. Hunter is her husband Harry, and the following children: Roland Hunter of Clarkston, Wash., Gordon L. Hunter of San Francisco; Lorenzo, Gurdello, Melba and Joseph S. of Cedar City. Brothers and sisters: Oscar Lunt of Salt Lake City, George Lunt of Duncan, Arizona, Mrs. Jane Burt of Glendale, Calif., Mrs. Rachel Black Blanding, Thos. Lunt, Mrs. George R. Hunter and Mrs. John M. Chatterley of Cedar City.

—[o]—