

Native of Cedar City dies

services held

Funeral services were held Saturday, July 8 at the Cedar Tenth Ward Chapel for Cedar City native George Washington Hunter, 77, who died Tuesday, July 5 at the Valley View Medical Center of natural causes.

A rancher and livestockman, who spent his entire life in the Cedar City area. In recent years he accomplished an extensive reseeding conservation program on his property on Cedar Mountain. He was a member of the American Legion, the Escalante Knife and Fork Club, the Utah Cattlemen's Association, the Cedar City Chamber of Commerce and the Utah Farm Bureau. He was a member of the LDS Church.

He was born Feb. 22, 1895 a son of George and Jamima Lunt Hunter. He married Caroline Rebecca Schoppmann, she died. Married Isabelle Ruby Ipsen, she died April 20, 1970.

Speakers at the services included Pat Fenton and Theo McKean with remarks by Bishop Warren Spencer, who conducted. Family prayer was given by Ira Schoppmann; invocation by Scott Chamberlain, the benediction by D. Parry Mackelprang and the dedication of the grave at the Cedar City Cemetery was by Harry Hair.

Musical selections included a vocal trio, consisting of Jackie Griffin, Lynetta Jensen and Marie Spencer singing "Oh My Father," and a vocal solo, "Beyond the Sunset," by Ralph Hafen. Prelude and postlude music was by Carol Spencer.

Survivors include sons and daughter: George Eugene, Dwane, both of Toquerville; Mrs. Claude (Afton) Smith, LaVerkin; and two step daughters, Mrs. Forrest (Reta) Anderson, Cedar City and Mrs. William R. (Aileen) Cressall, Virginia.

Also surviving are eight grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren.