

Conduct Services For Mrs. J. L. Hunter

Funeral services were held in the First Ward Chapel Wednesday afternoon for Mrs. Jamina Lunt Hunter, 79, who died Sunday. The services were conducted by Bishop H. P. Dotson, and consisted of the following program:

Opening song, "Guide Us Ever", by a mixed quartet consisting of Mrs. Annette Betensen, Mrs. Ann Gardner, Lehi M. Jones, and Walter Lunt.

Invocation by William Macfarlane.

Sentiments read by Mrs. John Booth.

Organ and piano duet by Mrs. Melba Sargent and Frank Var. Cott.

Talk by Mayor H. H. Lunt.

Remarks by Bp. H. P. Dotson.

Closing song, "I'll Go Where You Want Me To Go", the quartet.

Benediction by James Fisher.

Dedication of the grave by Herbert W. Webster.

Mrs. Hunter was born in Cedar City on January 20, 1866, a daughter of Henry and Ann Gower Lunt, early southern Utah pioneers, and spent most of her life here. She was very active in church and civic affairs in her earlier life, serving for years as a member of early Cedar City Choirs, and dramatic organizations.

She was married to John Irvine in 1883, and following his death married George R. Hunter in 1894.

Surviving are the following sons and daughters: Henry V. Irvine, San Francisco; George W. Hunter, Cedar City; Mrs. Marcia H. Pexton, Nephi; Miss Lucille Hunter, Cedar City; Mrs. Wanda H. Broadhead, Nephi. Also surviving are seven grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren; the following brothers and sisters: Thomas Lunt, Cedar City; Oscar Lunt, Glendale, California; George Lunt, Duncan, Arizona. Mrs. Jane Hilton, Glendale, California, and Mrs. Rachel Black, Blanding, Utah, and the following half-brothers and half-sisters: Randall Lunt, Mrs. Maude Matheson, Cedar City; Edward, Heaton, and Broughton Lunt, Duncan, Arizona; Mrs. Violate Urie, Pasadena, California, and Alma Lunt, Mexico.