

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR JEDDIE JONES

Funeral services for Jeddie L. Jones, son of Pres. Thos. J. Jones, convened in the tabernacle at 2:30 P. M., Friday December 17, Bishop M. Corry presiding.

The opening hymn—"Oh My Father," was sung by the choir.

The invocation was offered by Arthur Fife, followed by singing, "Some time we'll Understand," by the choir. Hazel Granger leading.

Walter Mitchell of Parowan, the first speaker, spoke on principles of the gospel suitable to the occasion and eulogized the deceased.

Mrs. Helen Foster sang, "There is Land in Some Fair Clime."

Dr. M. J. Macfarlane, who had been the attending physician spoke on the cause of the death and in highest terms of the deceased.

"Hark! Hark, My Soul" was sung by the choir with Mrs. Hazel Granger and Mrs. Wilford Fife leading.

Pres. Wm. R. Palmer spoke in a sympathetic strain, referring to passages of scripture that were full of consolation.

Bishop W. K. Granger spoke of Bro. Jones as he had seen and known him, adding words of comfort to the bereaved.

Bishop E. M. Corry made brief and consoling remarks, followed by the closing hymn "I Need Thee Every Hour," by the choir.

Benediction was pronounced by H. H. Haight and M. D. Higbee was called to dedicate the grave.

Jeddie was thirty-two years old and leaves a wife and six small children.
