

Illness Claims Life Of Erastus L. Jones

ERASTUS L. JONES

Erastus L. Jones, 67, a life-long resident of Cedar City, died Sunday, July 1 at the Iron County hospital of internal hemorrhaging.

Funeral services will be held at the Cedar Stake House Thursday, July 5, at 2 p. m.

Mr. Jones spent his entire life in Cedar City in the livestock and farming business. He at one time was a member of the Lions Club and of the BPOE Lodge No. 1556. He also served as commander of the American Legion Post and was active in affairs of the Woolgrowers Association and other livestock interests.

He was a veteran of World War I, and saw much overseas action.

He was born in Cedar City December 3, 1894, a son of Lehi W. and Henrietta Lunt Jones. He married Martha Laurena Langford in the Salt Lake LDS Temple June 20, 1917. Mrs. Jones died December 1, 1958.

He is survived by five children, York F., Larry and Mrs. Frank J. (Laurena) Adams, all of Cedar City; E. Quinn, Corona, Calif., and Mrs. Max J. (Madelon) Payne, South Gate, Calif. Also surviving are four brothers and two sisters: Kumen L., Henry L., Lehi M., William L., and Ann J. Gardner, all of Cedar City; and Mrs. Fred (Henrietta) Hintze, Salt Lake City. Seventeen grandchildren also survive him.
