

H. MARVIN JONES

Final Rites Accorded Cedar City Native, Henry Marvin Jones

Funeral services were held Tuesday, Nov. 1 for Henry Marvin Jones, 69, owner of Jones Motor Co. in Cedar City, who died at his home of a heart ailment Saturday, Oct. 29.

Services were conducted at the Cedar Seventh-Ninth Ward Chapel. Speakers were Theron Ashcroft, Pratt M. Bethers, Gustive O. Larson and Elwood J. Corry. Prayer at the funeral home was by Henry L. Jones and the invocation at the services was by Alex B. Williams. Benediction was by Cleo Wood and the dedication of the grave at the Cedar City cemetery was by Adam C. Seegmiller.

Special musical numbers included a vocal solo by Ralph R. Hafen and a violin duet by June Thorley and her daughter Melissa.

Mr. Jones had been active in community and church affairs. He is a former Cedar City councilman serving from 1954 to 1958. He is also a past president of the BNS-BAC-CSU Alumni Association, a past president of the Cedar City Lions Club, where he was also the recipient of the Monarch Award.

He was a member of the High Priest Quorum of the Cedar West Stake and had previously served as a member of the Bishopric of the Cedar Second Ward.

Interested in youth he was active in the Boy Scout program as a leader and held the coveted Silver Beaver Award.

Mr. Jones was born in Cedar City July 17, 1897 a son of Thomas Jeddiah and Ellen Eva Lunt Jones. He married Lucy Esplin Oct. 2, 1919 in the St. George LDS Temple.

Survivors include his widow of Cedar City; three sons and a daughter, Austin M. Jones, Waianae, Hawaii; Donald E. Jones, Torrence, Calif.; Willard C. Jones, Cedar City and Mrs. Arden (Afton) Bateman, St. George.

Also surviving are ten grandchildren and the following brothers and sisters: Elton L. Jones, Mrs. Frank E. (Sade) Thorley, and Mrs. Alfred (Cora) Stucki, all of Cedar, and Dr. Preston L. Jones, Nephi.