

Anthon H. Lunt, Cedar City Native Dies in Virginia

Anthon Hunter Lunt, 65, a native of Cedar City, who has been in U. S. government service the past 33 years died Monday, May 20 in Alexandria, Va.

Mr. Lunt, who was born in Cedar City on Oct. 14, 1902, a son of Henry W. and Roselia Hunter Lunt, had traveled extensively in Europe and South America working in the U. S. foreign aid program.

He graduated from Cedar High School, Branch Agricultural College and the Utah State University. He was prominent in academics and athletics and received the college citizenship award for scholastic achievement and all-around student.

Mr. Lunt was senior class president at Utah State in 1925-26 and was a member of Pi Kappa Alpha, Alpha Kappa Psi, Alpha Sigma Nu and the Intercollegiate Knights.

He won many honors in basketball, football and track and was captain of the track team in his senior year at

USU.

Mr. Lunt married Loretta Clayton in 1926 in Logan. They were divorced.

He married Elouise Bratagar in South Dakota.

Survivors include his widow, Alexandria; sons and daughter, Anthon C., Great Neck, N. Y.; Gerry and Jeffrey, both Alexandria; Mrs. Ronald D. (Joan) Scalter, Larchmont, N. Y.; five grandchildren; brothers and sisters, Mrs. Corris L. Ashton, New York City; Mrs. Gerald G. (Olive) Smith and Mrs. J. T. (Ione) Harrington, Salt Lake City, and Henry H. (Harry), Raymond H. and Willard H., all Cedar City.

Funeral services will be conducted Friday in the Everly-Wheatley Funeral Home, Alexandria. Burial will be in the International Cemetery, Washington, D. C.