

Final rites honor H. H. Lunt prominent Cedar leader

HENRY HUNTER LUNT

A Past Cedar City Mayor, Postmaster, Bishop, and State Legislator, Henry Hunter Lunt, 89, died at the Valley View Medical Center in Cedar City Monday, Jan. 13 after a short illness.

Services honoring the civic and church leader were held Wednesday at the Cedar City Twelfth Ward Chapel and burial was in the Cedar City Cemetery under the direction of the Spilsbury and Graff Mortuary.

A native of Cedar City, he was born here Nov. 24, 1885, the eldest son of Henry W. and Rozelia Hunter Lunt. He married Mary Jeanette Corry in October 1910 in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. She passed away in June 1923.

Mr. Lunt attended schools in Cedar City and was graduated from Branch Normal in 1905. He served two terms on the Cedar City Council in 1912 and 1914. He was elected Mayor in 1936 and served for four consecutive terms. He was appointed Postmaster in 1923 and served twelve years. He was very active on the committee that was instrumental in bringing the spur line of the Union Pacific RR from Lund to Cedar City.

One of the highlights of his civic endeavors was the revival and restoration of the Bank of Southern Utah after the crash during the depression of the 1930's.

In 1945 and 1947 Mr. Lunt served two terms as Iron County Representative to the State Legislature. He was an active member of the Chamber of Commerce and served as Secretary and Vice-President. He was a Life Member of the Rotary Club.

In 1918 he was appointed Bishop of the Cedar East Ward. Again in 1942 he was appointed Bishop of the Cedar First Ward and served three years. After retiring from public office he was busy in livestock management and ranching. He served on the Livestock Show Committee for several years. He was also very active in the National Wool Growers Association.

He is survived by a daughter, Marian Lunt Knott of Arlington, Va. and a son, Richard Corry Lunt of Woodland, Calif. Also surviving are brothers and sisters: Raymond H. Lunt and Willard H. Lunt, both of Cedar City; and Corris Ashton, Ione Harrington and Olive Smith, all of Salt Lake City.

Surviving grandchildren are seven with five great grandchildren.
