

SOUTHERN UTAH LEADER EXPIRES

Henry W. Lunt Known as Road Official and State Senator

SALT LAKE, Dec. 27 — Henry W. Lunt, former state senator, and for four years member of the state road commission, died at his home in Cedar City about 7 o'clock Sunday night, after an illness which had extended over several weeks. Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Rose Hunter Lunt; six sons and four daughters. Funeral services will be held at Cedar City toward the close of the week. Mr. Lunt was born in Cedar City, January 25, 1863, the son of Henry Lunt and Mary Ann Wilson Lunt. He was three times member of the city council and served as mayor of his birthplace. He was elected member of the state senate from his district, including Beaver, Iron, Washington and Kane counties, in 1910, and served in the sessions of 1911 and 1913. In 1914 he became a member of the board of commissioners of Iron county, and he served in that capacity continuously until 1922.

In that year, Governor Charles R. Mabey, seeking a road commissioner from the southern part of the state, recalled the man he had known when he had been a school teacher at Cedar City. Mr. Lunt was appointed to the commission and served there until his term expired, December 1, 1926.
