

Roselia Hunter Lunt

Accorded

Last Rites Wednesday

Funeral services were conducted in the Cedar First Ward Chapel Wednesday afternoon for Mrs. Roselia Hunter Lunt, 89, longtime and highly respected resident of Cedar City who died Saturday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. John T. Harrington, Salt Lake City. She had resided with her daughter for the past three years.

Mrs. Lunt was born in Cedar City on Feb. 25, 1866, a daughter of George and Mary Murie Hunter, pioneer settlers of Iron County. She spent most of her life in Cedar City, except for the past three years, and for several years in the 1920s when her late husband was a member of the Utah State Road Commission.

She married Henry W. Lunt, Dec. 10, 1884, in the St. George LDS Temple. Mr. Lunt died on Dec. 26, 1926.

Mrs. Lunt had always been an active member of the LDS church, serving in many capacities, particularly in the Relief Society.

Surviving are the following sons and daughters: Henry H. (Harry), Raymond H. and Willard H. Lunt, all of Cedar City; Anthon H. Lunt, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Joseph M. (Mary Ellen) Pond, Portland, Ore.; George H. Lunt, Mrs. Corris Ashton, Mrs. John T. (Ione) Harrington, and Mrs. Gerald G. (Olive) Smith, all of Salt Lake City. Also surviving are 32 grandchildren and 41 great-grandchildren.

The funeral services were conducted by Bishop Parson U. Webster. Speakers were William R. Palmer and Samuel F. Leigh. A tribute was read by Mrs. Rebecca Bulloch, and remarks were given by Bishop Webster.

Invocation was by George D. Grimshaw, benediction by Arthur Gardner, and the dedicatory prayer by George Smith. Prayer at the mortuary was by Henry P. Dotson.

The musical program included two numbers, "Come, Come Ye Saints" and "The Deepening Trials", by a string ensemble composed of Bernella Jones, June Thorley, Marilyn Halversen, R. L. Halversen, Mary MacDonald and Evelyn Jones; a violin solo, "Traumerii", by R. L. Halversen, accompanied by Mrs. Bernella Jones; a vocal solo, "The Lord's Prayer" by Herschell Neeley, accompanied by Mrs. Jones. Prelude and postlude organ music was by Mrs. Jones.

Pall bearers were Mrs. Lunt's five sons and a son-inlaw, John T. Harrington. Honorary pall bearers were grandsons of the deceased and members of the High Priest Quorum.

Burial was in the Cedar City cemetery.
