

EVA LUNT JONES PASSES AWAY

—OO—

WAS DEVOUT LATTER-DAY SAINT.—BORN IN CEDAR CITY SIXTY-TWO YEARS AGO.—PASSED THROUGH ALL THE HARDSHIPS OF EARLY PIONEER SETTLEMENT.

—OO—

Wednesday the gentle spirit of Mrs. Eva Lunt Jones of this city took its flight to its Maker from when it came sixty-two years ago.

The departed was well known to all old residents of this city, and to hundreds of the younger people, and was held in very high esteem by them all. She was born in Cedar February 7, 1861, the daughter of Henry Lunt and Mary Ann Lunt, both of whom preceded their daughter to the spirit world several years ago.

Eva Lunt Jones was a devout Latter-day Saint and during her whole life took much joy from living up to the precepts of the church of which she was a member. Her life throughout was sincere, earnest and devoted to her parents, and her husband and children. She went through all the trials and hardships during the early pioneer settlement of Cedar.

Eighteen years ago her health became undermined, and she grew worse as time went on, until finally death came as a boon to relieve her of suffering.

She leaves a devoted husband and the following children to mourn her departure: Randall L. Jones. Mrs. Sadie Thorley, Mrs. Mame Ballentyne, Mrs. Cora Stucki. Jed Jones, Marvin Jones, Elton Jones and Preston Jones.

Funeral services were held in the tabernacle this afternoon, and the building was filled to capacity with relatives, friends and acquaintances of the family of the deceased.
