

Services Held For Respected Cedar Pioneer

Funeral services were held in the First Chapel Tuesday afternoon for the remains of Henrietta Lunt, 73, who died Saturday after a illness from broncho pneumonia. She had been in poor health and confined to her home for the past few days.

Henrietta Jones, a daughter of Henry and Ann Wilson Lunt, was a member of one of the earliest pioneer families. She was very active in the church and community life of Cedar City until illness forced her to retire from these activities. She was born in Cedar City November 15, 1859, and spent an active life in the community. At the age of 17 she was chosen as president of the Mutual when it was first organized in Cedar, and after spending 25 years working in the ward became a member of the Stake organization in which she worked for many years. She later became active in the Relief Society and was a Stake president for many years.

She had three sons in the world war and was one of the leaders in Red Cross work during that time. She was one of the charter members of the post of the Service Star Legion and an active member of the Daughters of Utah Pioneers.

She is survived by her husband, Henry W. Jones; six sons, T. W., Kumen L., Lehl M., Erastus L., and Leland L., all of Cedar City and two daughters, Mrs. Henrietta Hirtze of Salt Lake City, and Mrs. Ann Gardner of Cedar City; one brother, Randall Jones, and two sisters, Mrs. Violet Urle and Mrs. Maude Matheson, all of Cedar City; and several half brothers and sisters.

Funeral numbers for the funeral service consisted of a double mixed quartet, songs of Annette Bettenson, Hazel Granger, Marlon Luke, Helen Foster, and Maude Matheson, Leland Perry, Otto and M. J. Urle, singing two numbers, "There's a Beautiful Country" and "Lay Thee Gently Down"; a selection from "Faust" by the string orchestra composed of Scott Gardner, Elma and Torma Andrus; a duet, "Give My Hand" by Hazel Granger and Annette Bettenson; and a violin solo "Adoration" by Scott Gardner.

Guest speakers included Myron D. Jones, Dr. M. J. Macfarlane, Mrs. L. E. Krell, Reese J. Williams, and Wm. R. Palmer. Each extolled the qualities of the deceased, commenting on her activities in civic and church affairs of Cedar City and paying high tribute to her as a mother, home builder, as a neighbor, and for her resourcefulness in home and community life.

Remarks were read from the histories of Utah Pioneers and the Service Star Legion by Bp. E. M. Corry and Herbert P. Haight, respectively.

Prayer was spoken by Wm. R. Cox, and benediction by M. T. Leigh. The grave was decorated by Herbert W. Webster.
