

Last Rites Held In Cedar for Randle Lunt, 86

RANDLE W. LUNT

* * *

Funeral services were held on Tuesday for Randle Wilson Lunt, 86, well-known Cedar City pioneer, who died Friday, Oct. 19, of ailments incident to age.

Mr. Lunt was born in Cedar City, Nov. 8, 1864, a son of Henry and Mary Ann Wilson Lunt, who were among the original pioneer company to settle Cedar City. He spent his entire life here, having been active in civic and church affairs of the community throughout his life.

He was one of the founders of the Branch Normal school, now the Branch Agricultural college, and was one of the group of men who went into the mountains in the middle of winter to get lumber for the first school building in 1897 and assure the establishment of the school at Cedar City.

For many years he worked as a rancher and freighter in this area.

His father was in charge of the original group of pioneers who came to Cedar City to establish the Iron Mission, and later operated a hotel here. During those years Randle became acquainted with Brigham Young, John Taylor, Wilford Woodruff and other noted church leaders as they stayed at the Lunt hotel when traveling through the settlements of southern Utah.

He was a member of the old Cedar City Brass Band, and he played the violin in dance orchestras and for many community affairs.

Continuing to be active in community affairs as long as he was able to be around, Mr. Lunt became an active member of the Old Timers club of Cedar City.

He married Catherin Gibson in the St. George L D S temple on Dec. 16, 1885. Two sons and seven daughters were born to them. In 1908 he married Nancy Pendleton to whom two daughters were born. In 1930 he married Mrs. Sarah Adelia Adair, who died in 1949.

He is survived by two sons, Walter G. Lunt, Cedar City; Randle Gibson Lunt, Los Angeles; seven daughters, Mrs. Jeannette Bennett, Hollywood; Mrs. Eva Erickson, Grants Pass, Ore.; Mrs. Mary Ann Montgomery, Pioche, Nev.; Mrs. Blanche Dotson, Cedar City; Mrs. Eula Urvan, Mrs. Marguerite Henschen and Mrs. Elberta Freimuth, all of Las Vegas, Nev.; 25 grandchildren and one great-grandchild; 10 brothers and sisters, Mrs. Violet Urie, Cedar City; Mrs. Maude L. Matheson, St. George; Mrs. Rachel Black, Blanding; Mrs. Jane L. Burt, Los Angeles; Oscar Lunt, Los Angeles; George, Heaton and Parley Lunt, Duncan, Ariz.; Alma Lunt, Pacheco, Mexico, and Edward Lunt, Mesa, Ariz.

The funeral services were conducted in the First ward chapel by Bishop H. P. Dotson, with Miss

(Continued on Back Page)

RANDLE LUNT

(Continued from Page One)

Audrey Dotson at the organ.

Speakers at the services were David L. Sargent, Lyle Prince of New Harmony, and G. O. Larson, with brief remarks given by Bishop Dotson.

The musical program included two songs, "The Lord's Command", and "Long, Long Ago", by a mixed quartet composed of nephews and pieces of Mr. Lunt, including Annette Betenson, Zelma Lunt, Lehi M. Jones, and Joseph Hunter, accompanied by Mrs. Bernella Jones; a violin solo by Roy L. Halversen, accompanied by Mrs. Virginia Larson; and a song, "Home, Beautiful Home", by a group of singers from New Harmony, accompanied by Lulu Mathis.

The invocation was given by Samuel F. Leigh, the benediction by C. B. Cooley, and the dedication of the grave by H. H. Lunt. Pallbearers were all grandsons, and the flower girls were all granddaughters of Mr. Lunt.
