

Eva Lunt Erickson Extended Funeral Rites

Funeral services are being conducted in the Cedar First Ward chapel this afternoon, Thursday, for Mrs. Eva Lunt Mathews Erickson, 68, native of Cedar City who died in Boise, Idaho, Monday. She died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Elwin Theobald, in the Idaho city.

Mrs. Erickson was born in Cedar City on Nov. 1, 1888, a daughter of Randle W. and Catherine Gibson Lunt. She was educated in Cedar Schools and graduated from the Branch Normal School in 1909, after which she taught in Iron and Beaver counties for several years. In 1910 she married Marion Mathews in Beaver, who died in 1913. In 1930 she married Hyrum Erickson of Delta. She was well known in business circles in Delta for many years, and later moved to Long Beach, Calif., where she engaged in business and served as a stake missionary for two years. Always an active member of the church she has served for many years as a teacher in both Relief Society and Sunday School.

She is survived by her daughter, Maud Marion Theobald; five grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, and the following brothers and sisters: Walter G. Lunt and Blanche L. Dotson, Cedar City; Mary Ann Montgomery, Ploche, Nev.; Eula Urban, Las Vegas, Nev.; Randle Gibson Lunt, Los Angeles, Calif., and two half sisters, Mrs. Bertha Friethmuth and Mrs. Reta Chidester, Las Vegas, Nev.
