

Funeral Services Mark Passing Of T. Willard Jones

T. W. JONES

Funeral services were conducted in the Cedar Third Ward chapel Monday for Thomas Willard Jones, 79, Newcastle, prominent leader in southern Utah, who succumbed at the Iron County Hospital on Thursday, Feb. 20, following a lingering illness.

Services were under the direction of Bishop Melvin Hulet of the Newcastle LDS Ward.

Prayer at the mortuary prior to the services was by Henry Jones.

Prelude and postlude music was played by Mrs. Bernella Jones. Invocation was by Harry Lunt.

Speakers included William H. Manning, Parley Dalley, Arthur Barlocker and Mrs. Gordon Moyle who also read a tribute to the deceased. Remarks were given by Bishop Hulet.

Musical numbers included a number by the Tradesmen, Cedar City quartet, and a vocal solo, "Riding Down the Canyon," by a son, Robert Jones.

Benediction was by F. A. Thorley and the dedicatory prayer at the Cedar City cemetery was rendered by Samuel F. Leigh.

Mr. Jones was born Dec. 5, 1878, in Cedar City, a son of Lehi Willard and Henrietta Lunt Jones. He married Sophia E. Forsyth June 25, 1902 in the St. George LDS Temple. Mrs. Jones died in November, 1957.

He is survived by three sons and a daughter: Richard and Uriah, Newcastle; Robert S., Van Nuys, Calif. and Mrs. Gwendolyn Banks, Las Vegas, Nev.; seven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren; five brothers and two sisters including Kumen L., Henry L., Lehi M., Erastus L., William L. Jones and Mrs. Ann Gardner, all of Cedar City, and Mrs. Henrietta Hintze, Salt Lake City.

Mr. Jones was a member of the L D S Church and had fulfilled a mission to Germany from 1897 to 1900.

From 1909 until 1917, he was manager of the Newcastle Reclamation project. In the Escalante Valley area he built up farming lands and livestock and was one of the promoters of the vast pump well operations now in the valley.

He graduated from the University of Utah where he received a degree in chemical engineering. He was employed for a number of years as an engineer with the American Consolidated Smelting and Refining Co. in Bingham. In addition to his studies at U of U he also attended Brigham Young University at Provo and for a time was a member of the faculty of the Branch Normal School in Cedar City, now the College of Southern Utah.
