

George Hunter Lunt, Native of Cedar, Dies in Bountiful

George Hunter Lunt, 78, a native and former prominent resident of Cedar City, died Monday at his home in Bountiful.

Mr. Lunt was born June 8, 1887, in Cedar City, to Henry W. and Roselia Hunter Lunt. He married Myrtle Johnson, Nov. 28, 1916, in the Logan LDS Temple.

He was elected Cedar City attorney in 1919, and later became Iron County attorney. He was elected district attorney for the Fifth Judicial District and in 1929 became an assistant U. S. district attorney, and moved to offices in Salt Lake City. He also was an attorney for the Utah State Liquor Commission. He retired about 1957.

He was educated in Cedar City schools and graduated from Branch Agricultural College, now College of Southern Utah. He received his B. A. degree from the University of Utah in 1913, and attended law school at the University of California.

Before practicing law, he taught school at the Branch Agricultural College.

He was a high priest in the Yale Ward, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and had been a Bountiful resident for two years. He served an LDS mission to England in 1907.

He was a member of the Utah State Bar Assn., and a charter member of the Cedar City Rotary Club.

Survivors include his widow; his son and three daughters, Dixon Hunter, Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. Harold M. H. (Anna Jeanne) Lund, Bountiful; Mrs. Charles W. (Louise) Martin, Minneapolis, Minn.; Mrs. Gordon H. (Patricia) Weed, O'Fallon, Ill.; and 13 grandchildren.

Also surviving are brothers and sisters, H. A., Raymond H., Willard H., all of Cedar City; Anthon H., Washington, D. C. Mrs. Corris L. Ashton, Mrs. John T. (Ione) Harrington, Mrs. Gerald G. (Olive) Smith, all of Salt Lake City.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday noon in the Yale LDS Second Ward Chapel. Burial was in the Salt Lake City cemetery.
